

EMORY BANKRUPTCY DEVELOPMENTS JOURNAL SYMPOSIUM

February 22, 2018 | 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. | Tull Auditorium

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

8:00 A.M. Breakfast

8:50 A.M. Introductions

9:00 A.M. Consumer Panel - Access to Bankruptcy: Vindicating the Rights of All Consumers

- (Moderator) The Honorable Austin Carter, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Middle District of Georgia
- Kara Bruce, Associate Dean for Faculty Research and Development and Professor of Law, University of Toledo College of Law
- Pamela Foohey, Associate Professor of Law, University of Indiana Maurer School of Law
- Alexandra Sickler, Associate Professor, University of North Dakota School of Law

Issue 2 of Volume 34 of the Emory Bankruptcy Developments Journal will feature written contributions on this topic from these panelists, as well as from Susan Block-Lieb, Professor of Law and Cooper Family Chair in Urban Legal Issues at Fordham University School of Law.

10:30 A.M. Break

10:45 A.M. Corporate Panel - Jevic: An Attempt to Put the "Structure" Back in Structured Dismissals

- Alexandra Dugan, Associate, Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP, Nashville TN
- Leah Fiorenza, Associate, Bryan Cave, Atlanta GA
- Katie Good, Partner, Whiteford Taylor Preston, LLP, Wilmington DE
- Monique D. Hayes, Partner, Goldstein & McClintock LLLP, Miami FL

12:15 P.M. Lunch

EMORY
LAW

Register at law.emory.edu/ebdj/syposium or at the door.

Symposium registration is free and open to the public. Georgia Bar member may obtain three CLE credits for a $75 fee.